

Using the Portola Valley Archives Website

Welcome

Welcome to the Portola Valley Historic Resources Committee digital archives. This site lets you explore local history and contribute your own materials to help preserve it for future generations.

This page explains how to find items, view them, and submit your own contributions.

What You Can Do on This Site

As a public user, you can:

- Search for historical items
- Browse by Collections (groups of related items)
- Browse by Keywords (topics and themes)
- View photos, documents, audio, and video
- Submit your own items to the archives, with or without creating an account

All public submissions are reviewed before they appear on the site.
